"WE HAVE 10 GAMES TO GO IN THE LEAGUE AS WE APPROACH THE RUN-IN. IT IS VERY CLOSE BETWEEN US AND THE TEAMS AROUND US AND EVERY POINT WILL COUNT"

Good afternoon and welcome back to Wembley.

I was happy to make it through to the quarter finals of the FA Cup here on Wednesday with a 6-1 win over Rochdale.

It was a good performance and a professional one. The players had to cope with a tough first half in difficult weather conditions. Despite that we stuck to our task and showed plenty of quality in the second period to win comfortably in the end. We were ruthless in those early stages after half-time which ended the game as a contest.

I was pleased for Fernando to score his hat-trick. As a striker it is important to feel the ball hitting the back of the net and congratulations too to Kyle Walker-Peters on his first goal for the club.

Credit is due to Rochdale who gave a good account of themselves over the two games and we wish them luck for the rest of their season.

I would like to thank you also for braving the cold weather to get behind us both on Wednesday and this afternoon. It takes dedication to follow us, especially when the weather is like it is at the moment and we are all grateful. Please be careful in the snow and icy conditions.

We face another away trip in our FA Cup quarter final as we take on Swansea City in a fortnight. This will be another tricky game against a Premier League side who have shown much improvement over the last couple of months.

Our focus today however is on the league again as we welcome Huddersfield Town and their manager David Wagner. They arrive here in good form having taken maximum points from their last two games and we expect them to be tough opponents today.

We have 10 games to go in the league as we approach the run-in. It is close between us and the teams around us and every point will count in the race to make it into the top four. We have momentum and must keep it going.

Enjoy the game.

ERIC'S ELATION AT LATE DRAMA

Eric Dier went from frustration to elation at the end of a tricky game against Crystal Palace last Sunday.

The versatile England international dropped into the back four in the absence of Jan Vertonghen, who took a knock in training the day before the trip to Selhurst Park, and performed well alongside Davinson Sanchez to keep home forwards Alexander Sorloth and Christian Benteke under control.

However, it wasn't quite as straightforward at the other end as we kept probing and pushing for an opening, only to find our path blocked or good chances go begging.

Thankfully, Harry Kane popped up with an 89th-minute header from Christian Eriksen's corner to give us a 1-0 victory, leaving Eric feeling relieved after a third consecutive late show in SE25.

"It felt at times like it was going to be one of those annoying days where we squandered a couple of chances in the first half and again in the second half," he said.

"On the corner, I saw the ball go around the back and it looked like it was going out of play but Harry has done fantastically well to get all the way around there – I think he was almost on the byline but we expect so much of him that it becomes normal when he does something like that!

"It was a fantastic header and such an important goal for us. We've had that feeling a lot at Palace in the last couple of years – Christian last year, Dele the year before – where we've always managed to score late goals, which means mixed feelings really.

"It's a relief. It makes for a better game and the fans can enjoy that moment, but it's always nice if we can score earlier and make it a more comfortable afternoon."

TONY'S TERRIERS TALE

Spurs legend Tony Galvin is looking forward to seeing how his home town club fares against us today.

The former winger, born and raised in Huddersfield, joined us from Yorkshire-based non-league side Goole Town in 1978 and went on to score 31 goals in 273 appearances in our colours, winning the FA Cup in 1981 and 1982, plus the 1984 UEFA Cup, during his time at White Hart Lane.

A regular on the terraces at Town's old Leeds Road ground when he was younger, some of Tony's childhood pals remain season ticket holders at Huddersfield and are in the away end here this afternoon, while Tony himself is greeting Spurs fans in the Wembley hospitality lounges.

"When I was growing up in Huddersfield, I used to go there with friends to watch them play," he explained. "They were the first team my dad ever took me to see. They had some quite famous players around the late-1960s, probably the biggest name being Frank Worthington. In 1970 they managed to get into the First Division and that was very exciting at the time. They had a good team, Trevor Cherry played for them and then went on to play for Leeds. Unfortunately it only lasted two seasons and they went back down, then I moved away to university and only occasionally watched them but obviously you always follow them because it's your home team."

Ahead of today's game, the former Republic of Ireland international added: "Huddersfield's season has gone pretty much as I thought it might do. They started quite well, looked energetic, but then gradually throughout the season they've started to struggle a little bit. They've reached the point now where their season is probably going to depend on getting results at home.

"Alex Pritchard has been quite impressive lately. He's been at Spurs, he's obviously got good quality and Rajiv van La Parra is a player that I like as well.

"I've got some friends coming down to the game so hopefully I might get a chance to see them at some stage today. From a Huddersfield point of view, it's a good day out for the fans at Wembley and they'll make a bit of noise. If I'm being really honest, though, I expect a two- or three-goal victory for Spurs."

Crowd record broken again

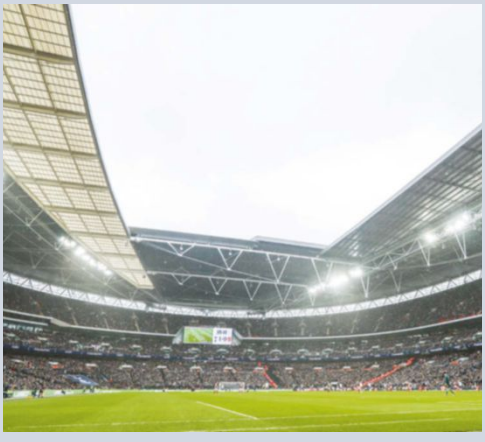
Our attendance figure of 83,222 last time out in the league here at Wembley against Arsenal set a new record mark on three fronts.

It toppled the previous best Premier League record set by us against Manchester United just last month, with 81,978 at Wembley for our fine 2-0 win on 31 January. That was also our club record for a home league match.



The attendance was just short of the all-time home league record in English football - currently held by Manchester United at 83,260 for a match against Arsenal in the old First Division played at Maine Road in 1948.

Before this season, our highest crowd for a home league match was 70,882 against Manchester United at White Hart Lane in September, 1951.

Meanwhile, 83,222 is a new record for the north London derby. The previous best figures were for the semi-finals at Wembley in 1991 (77,893) and 1993 (76,263) followed by 70,544 at Highbury in 1934 and 69,821 at White Hart Lane in 1953.

Our record home attendance remains 85,512 against Bayer Leverkusen in last season's Champions League campaign, the biggest crowd ever for a club match in England in any competition.

THE DUKE'S HEADER

Andy Greeves tells a story from our vast history that has a link to our matchday opponents. This afternoon, he looks back on a controversial headed goal scored for us by Len 'The Duke' Duquemin against Huddersfield Town in 1952

During our first top-flight title-winning season of 1950-51, we lost just eight matches in all competitions. Three of those defeats came at the hands of Huddersfield Town, who became the only club to complete a league 'double' over us that campaign.

The Terriers secured a 3-2 victory over us at their former Leeds Road ground in November, 1950, coupled with a 2-0 win at White Hart Lane the following April. The West Yorkshire outfit also knocked us out of the FA Cup, with a 2-0 home triumph in the third round.

Despite our wobbles against Huddersfield, Arthur Rowe's team ended up winning the old First Division title in 1951 with a four-point margin from runners-up Manchester United. The Terriers meanwhile came 19th in the table, avoiding relegation by four points as Sheffield Wednesday and Everton went down.

The following season saw us embroiled in another title-race with Manchester United – as well as Portsmouth and local rivals Arsenal – while Huddersfield once again battled against the drop. On November 10, 1951, we faced our 'bogey side' of the previous campaign, securing a 1-1 draw at Leeds Road thanks to a Len Duquemin goal in front of a crowd of 30,259.

The corresponding fixture took place at White Hart Lane on April 2, 1952. Heading into that match, a run of two draws and four victories in our previous six league games had kept us in the title race as we occupied fourth position in the table. United and Arsenal – in first and second respectively – both had four more points and a game in hand each, while Portsmouth were a point ahead of us in third. The Terriers were deep in relegation trouble, some five points from safety and rooted to the bottom of the league.

With so much at stake for both sides, it is little surprise that the first half of the match was something of a cagey affair. There was a notable chance for each team though, with Chris Adams – in one of just six senior appearances for us – coming close to opening the scoring. At the other end, full-back Arthur Wills headed a Huddersfield effort off our goal line.

> "The bewildered referee – who didn't see the build-up to the header – awarded the effort after consultation with his linesman"

The game continued to be a tough slog in the second half as the score line remained goalless in front of 22,396 spectators – our lowest home crowd of the season. Our last chance to break the deadlock came with less than 60 seconds remaining, as we were awarded a corner. A frustrated Eddie Baily, who had been embroiled in an argument with referee W.R Barnes moments earlier, went over to take the kick at the Paxton Road end of the Lane.

Len Duquemin

Arriving at the corner flag, Baily spotted the run of Duquemin at the far post. He launched his set piece into the direction of The Duke, only for the ball to deflect off the referee and bounce back towards him. Baily swiftly put in a second cross, which Duquemin headed powerfully into the back of the Terriers net.

The awarding of the goal was contrary to Law 17 of the IFAB's (International Football Association Board) 'Laws of the Game' which states that: "If, after the ball is in play, the kicker touches the ball again before it has touched another player, an indirect free kick is awarded".

The bewildered referee – who didn't see the build-up to Duquemin's header – awarded the effort after consultation with his linesman.

Huddersfield protested the awarding of the goal and Town chairman Haydn Battye could be seen rushing from the Directors' Box to the players' tunnel on hearing the final whistle.

Pushing aside players, reporters and coaching staff, he fumed: "You can all wait, I'm seeing him first," referring to the match official.

The Terriers also launched an official complaint to the Football League and requested for the match to be replayed. This appeal was rejected. The referee later claimed he had allowed the goal because he thought another player had touched the ball prior to Baily centring for Duquemin to score. Baily meanwhile added: "The crowd thought I did it deliberately," and swiftly denied that this was his intention.

Our match programme for the next match at the Lane - an FA Cup semi-final replay between Arsenal and Chelsea – offered a philosophical view on one of the Football League's most controversial goals. "The referee's decision is final and even if we may have been the winners in this instance, there have been previous cases in which we have been the sufferers," read the column. "The referee is only human and like the players, indeed all of us, makes mistakes."

Memories of Duquemin's goal were doubtless rekindled for any supporters who attended both the Huddersfield game back in 1952 and our recent FA Cup fourth round replay against Newport County. The tie was our first-ever fixture played amid the presence of a Video Assistant Referee (VAR) and such technology would surely have ruled out 'The Dukes' effort had it been around some 66 years ago!

Huddersfield were relegated at the end of the 1951-52 campaign after 26 consecutive seasons in the top flight. They could at least take consolation from the fact their dropped point at White Hart Lane wouldn't ultimately seal their fate.

The Terriers went down, along with Fulham, having finished three points behind Chelsea in 19th.

After our victory over Huddersfield, we won three and drew two of our remaining five league fixtures of the First Division season.

We ended up coming second in the table, four points behind champions Manchester United, while our superior goal difference saw us finish above Arsenal with both ourselves and the Gunners having amassed 53 points.

TOTTENHAM'S TERRIERS

Having won three consecutive league titles between 1924 and 1926 as well as the FA Cup in 1922, Huddersfield Town are considered by many to be English football's 'Team of the 1920s'.

The Terriers' all-conquering side of that decade contained a number of individuals with connections to N17 as well as our former inside-forward Herbert Chapman, who was the club's manager between 1921 and 1925. Chapman - who also won two titles and an FA Cup with Arsenal during the 1930s - scored 15 goals in 41 Southern League appearances for us between 1905 and 1907.

One of Chapman's finest signings for Town was Charlie Wilson, who made the move from White Hart Lane to Leeds Road in 1922. The centre-forward was the Terriers' top-scorer for two consecutive seasons as they won the first of their league championships in 1923-24 with 20 strikes in 33 appearances while he got 24 goals in 39 matches in 1924-25 as the club retained the title. Previously, he had scored 33 goals in 62 games for us between 1919 and 1922.

County Durham-born George 'Billy' Cook played a key role in Town's triple league title success, scoring 35 goals in 87 league appearances between 1923 and 1927. After a spell with Aston Villa, he signed for us in the summer of 1929, aged 34 at the time. His 13 goals in 31 league appearances in 1930-31 helped us to a third-place finish in the old Second Division. He got 24 goals in 67 matches for us overall prior to his departure to Brentford in June, 1931.

Billy Cook

The plaudits have been raining down on Mousa Dembele recently with pundits heaping glowing praise on our Belgian midfielder – leaving Spurs supporters wondering what took them so long!

It's already five-and-a-half years now since the Belgian international moved across London, swapping Fulham for Tottenham having previously made a name for himself in a four-year stay with Dutch side Willem II.

And in that time, Mousa has always been an integral part of the set-up here at Spurs, delighting his managers, team-mates and fans alike with his commanding performances as the fulcrum of the side in the heart of our midfield.

The 30-year-old even scored on his Spurs debut against Norwich City at White Hart Lane back in August, 2012, but, if anything, it was a goal which proved to be deceptive. Perhaps there was the belief that Dembele should be the creator of the team and a lack of goals and assists during his time with us – he's only netted 10 times and assisted 11 – is one of the main reasons why he hasn't received the external credit he deserves.

Until now that is. While everyone at Spurs has known for years just how important Mousa is to the way we play, those outside the club are just beginning to realise it too! No doubt opposing players and coaching staff are well aware of his qualities, but actually stopping him dominating the midfield is something altogether very different.

Yes, Mousa has suffered with injuries over the last five years or so and hasn't always been able to produce his best but, more often than not, he's one of the first names on the teamsheet. And when it comes to the big games, he's the one supporters want to see in the heat of the midfield battle, winning tackles, brushing aside opponents and developing the space which allows the flair players to do their stuff. Not that Mousa doesn't have his fair share of flair!

"IT'S ALWAYS NICE TO FEEL APPRECIATED. I DON'T LIKE TO THINK TOO MUCH ABOUT EVERYTHING THAT'S GOING ON AROUND US ALTHOUGH IT'S ALWAYS NICE TO HEAR PEOPLE TALK POSITIVELY ABOUT US"

So when our recent fixture list saw us facing Manchester United, Liverpool, Arsenal and Juventus, fears of disappointing result were allayed by the fact Dembele and his team-mates were in good form and determined not to slip up. That we came through all four games unbeaten and with two excellent away draws only goes to prove the point.

Speaking after those matches, our former player Jermaine Jenas – who knows a thing or two about playing in midfield – said this about Mousa in his media column:

"In the past few weeks he has come up against players of the calibre of Paul Pogba and Nemanja Matic of Manchester United, and Sami Khedira and Miralem Pjanic of Juventus, and has destroyed them all. And when he is at the top of his game, which he is at the moment, he is one of the best central midfielders in Europe - there is no doubt about that."

Much more has been said and written about him – including from his own manager and team-mates - as the Mousa Dembele Appreciation Society continues to expand, but the player himself tries to take it all in his stride, while at the same time acknowledging that it will all count for nothing if we don't start winning trophies.

"Of course, it's always nice to feel appreciated," said Mousa. "I don't like to think too much about everything that's going on around us although it's always nice to hear people talk positively about you.

"When you hear praise from your teammates, it makes you feel good, obviously, because you train with them every day and that's how they think. I would be lying if I said 'no, that doesn't matter', everyone wants to be appreciated and it's the same with this.

"But it's important for myself and for my performances to not think too much about this because if you think 'ah yes, people think I'm good' then it can stop your motivation.

"I'm enjoying it and that comes from playing with good players in a good team, that's when you are recognised as a good player. It's nice to hear but the thing is that we haven't achieved anything yet and we want to win something. We have goals to achieve and that's the only focus.

"If we can win something and I'm playing well, then that's the ideal scenario."

While Mousa appreciates the praise himself and the team has received in recent weeks, particularly after the 2-2 Champions League draw in Juventus, when we produced a mature performance to come back and salvage the game having trailed 2-0 at one stage, for him it's the same story – great results, great performances, but no trophies are given out at this stage of the season.

"Yes it was a special performance against Juventus, probably the most important performance up to now because it's very difficult to play against them but it showed we have character. We showed we're very strong mentality and we wanted it badly. That was a big plus.

"I think we've done very well lately, a lot of people are positive about the team's performances and now everyone recognises us. That's dangerous. We need to motivate ourselves.

CAREER SO FAR

FIRST STEPS

Born in Wilwrijk, Antwerp, he started out with the Berchem Sport youth club before joining Germinal Beerschot, making his professional debut against Charleroi in April, 2004.

MOVING UP

The midfielder spent the 2005-06 season with Willem II, scoring nine times in 33 games, moving to Louis van Gaal's AZ Alkmaar in the summer of 2006.

TROPHY DESPAIR

Part of the AZ side which lost the Dutch league title on the last day of the 2006-07 season and the Dutch Cup that year. Joined Fulham in August, 2010.

"IT WAS A SPECIAL PERFORMANCE AGAINST JUVENTUS, BECAUSE IT'S VERY DIFFICULT TO PLAY AGAINST THEM. WE SHOWED CHARACTER"

"We've done nothing, we've just played well against good teams. It gives us confidence of course and that's most important, but it's vital to use this confidence in a good way."

Having been with us for almost six years now and a resident of London for nearly eight after his two-year spell with Fulham, Mousa admits he's a happy man on and off the pitch. The icing on the cake, of course, would be silverware.

"I'm very happy, my family is happy, my kids go to school here and it's always very important to choose a place where everyone is comfortable," he explained. "The city, the club, it's a family. Everyone who works here as well, there's just a good vibe and that's most important. There are no arrogant people or anything like that. We're all friends.

"You come into work with a good feeling and everyone has the same goals, the same aims. We're lucky to have this.

"For me, the most important thing is to enjoy my football and then win something. I'm enjoying my football, now I want to win something."

COTTAGE INDUSTRY

An industrious player in Fulham's midfield, he scored their goal of the season – against Spurs – in 2010-11. Featured 62 times in the league before joining us in August, 2012.

DEBUT DELIGHT

Scored on his Spurs debut against Norwich City and has been a key cog in our midfield since his arrival, making 226 appearances, scoring 10 goals. Has also won 72 caps for Belgium.

The series continues today with Belgian defender TOBY ALDERWEIRELD...

What was the first World Cup you can remember watching?
I remember some of the games that Belgium played in 1998 and 2002 – there are images in my mind of certain moments. I remember the 2002 World Cup in Japan and South Korea more clearly but I still have some early recollections of the 1998 tournament in France as well. We were watching at my school, we had big events where everyone came together and there were a lot of things to do – there was a barbeque, face painting and a big screen showing the games. We had everything!

Who were the stars that year?
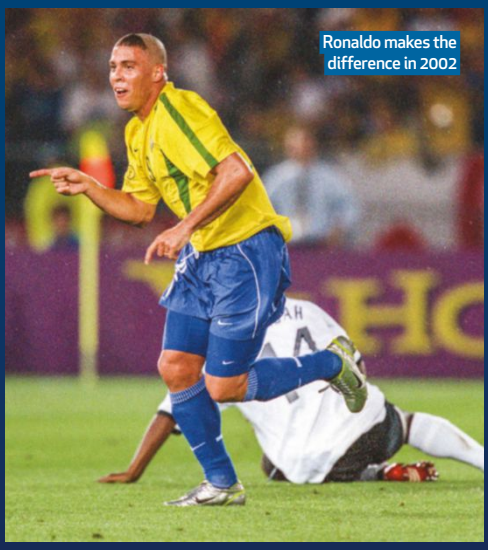
In 2002, of course, you had the 'old-school' Ronaldo who was a big player at that time for Brazil and I remember



Ronaldo makes the difference in 2002

Toby taking part in the 2014 World Cup

the Belgian players too – people like Marc Wilmots, the captain up front, and Johan Walem in midfield. Obviously I really got behind Belgium and as a football lover, to be able to watch your country in the World Cup was an unbelievable feeling.

Have you ever been to a World Cup match as a supporter?
No. When I became old enough I didn't have a chance to do that, but then I was very fortunate to play at the 2014 World Cup in Brazil. That's something I'm very proud about, but maybe after my career has finished I will go to watch some World Cup games.

If there was one World Cup game in history that you could have gone to, which one would it be and why?
The opening game for Belgium in 1982 when we beat Argentina 1-0. Erwin Vandenbergh scored the goal, if my knowledge is correct. Obviously I wasn't even born then but it was a successful period for Belgian football, so that's the game I would pick to go and watch.

What are the best memories you have of your own country at the World Cup?
Again, I wasn't born but you watch tapes of the Belgian team in the 1980s and appreciate what was happening. If you look through the archives, you'll see that the history of Belgian football is not that impressive, but you know about some of those things in the 1980s, like when we got to the semi-finals in 1986. As far as my own personal best memories go, it would have to be my debut at the World Cup when we beat Algeria 2-1 in Brazil in 2014. It was my first big tournament as well – I hadn't played at the Euros before – so that was a very proud moment.

What is the best match you've ever seen at the finals?
That's a very tough one! Maybe Brazil v France in 1998

Zinedine Zidane played a starring role back in 1998

"THE WORLD CUP IS BEAUTIFUL – EVERYONE CAN EXCEED THEIR EXPECTATIONS"

with Zinedine Zidane as Man of the Match. He was unbelievable at that time. France played at home as well, so it was a great game to watch.

And the best goal?
Ronaldo's second goal against Germany in the 2002 final, when they won 2-0. Kléberson broke on the right, played it across, there was a dummy at the edge of the box and Ronaldo finished it well into the bottom corner.

What is the most unusual kit you've seen at the tournament?
Every country has their own identity and personality, so I can't think of any really unusual ones. The colours and brands are always very good at the World Cup to represent the different nations.

Who do you think will make an impact at this year's World Cup?
Of course, we as Belgium hope to make an impact but you have some big competitors in there with Brazil, Argentina and France, who are very strong with the big squad that they have. You can't forget Germany either – they're always up there – and maybe there will be a surprise from what on paper might be seen as a smaller country as well. That's what's beautiful about the World Cup – everybody can exceed their own expectations. I remember South Korea in 2002 – suddenly they were almost unbeatable because they were playing at home, so maybe a team like Russia, with the country behind them, can do something special.

What's being said

Jonathan De Bie, Spurs Under-18s captain and Belgian Under-18 international

"Toby is a strong figure in defence for Belgium and his style of play suits the team well. He's got a good relationship with Jan Vertonghen – they're both together in defence and they can communicate better because they've played in the same team for years now, so both of them are really important. Toby is not a player who looks to play the ball long all the time, he is always ready to play to feet and he's got quality on the ball so he is a good fit in that sense because Belgium are not a team that will stay back and park the bus. He can also play the long passes, switch the play and find the attackers really easily and that's one of the reasons why he's so important, because he can do both jobs at the back. He used to play right-back as well, but now he's always playing at centre-half. I believe he could help the national team to a higher level with his winning mentality at the World Cup this year."

REMEMBER WHEN...

...we won a trophy here at Wembley on March 3 back in 1973? Some of our older fans here this afternoon will no doubt have been at the game and recall a disappointing affair as we edged past Norwich City, but victory was what mattered on the day. The Carrow Road outfit adopted a fairly defensive approach to the game and it worked for much of the contest, until Ralph Coates drilled home in the 72nd-minute. The former Burnley midfielder started the game on the bench but was introduced after just 25 minutes for the injured John Pratt. And when a long Martin Chivers throw-in was helped into the danger zone by Martin Peters and then Alan Gilzean, Coates was there to sweep the ball into the net and settle the outcome, securing a place in Europe for the 1973-74 season and maintaining our unbeaten Wembley run.

ON THIS DAY MARCH 3

2013
SPURS 2-1 ARSENAL

Two goals in two minutes from Aaron Lennon and Gareth Bale ensured the north London derby spoils were ours on this day five years ago. Lennon opened the scoring on 37 minutes, Bale struck soon after to put us in control and although Per Mertesacker pulled one back in the second half, we held on to win.

1982
SPURS 1-0 E. FRANKFURT

There was European football at the Lane 32 years ago today, as West German side Eintracht Frankfurt visited for the first leg of our Cup Winners' Cup third round tie. Goals from Paul Miller and Micky Hazard secured the win and we finished the job in Germany two weeks later, despite losing 2-1. We went out to Barcelona in the semi-finals.

1951
SPURS 2-1 CHELSEA

We were top of Division One and heading for our first-ever League Championship success when Chelsea arrived at the Lane on this day in 1951. Alex Wright put us ahead six minutes into his debut and Ron Burgess added a second on 14 minutes, Chelsea retaliating with a late consolation strike as we inched closer to the title.

DAVID WAGNER

Assured of legendary status at Huddersfield Town by virtue of leading the West Yorkshire club back to the top-flight of English football for the first time since 1955, Wagner is a German-born former USA international forward who worked as a coach under his close friend Jürgen Klopp at Mainz 05 and Borussia Dortmund II before being offered the Terriers' job in November, 2015, following the departure of Chris Powell. ## FORM GUIDE:

Written off as pre-season relegation certainties in their maiden Premier League campaign following their Championship Play-off final penalty shoot-out victory against Reading at Wembley last May, David Wagner's Terriers have shown they can compete in the top-flight with their most notable victory coming at home to Manchester United in October. Their battle for survival continues today with both their away wins this season coming on trips south to Crystal Palace and Watford.

DOUBLE EDGE

Charlie Wilson was a regular goalscorer for Spurs but it was with Huddersfield that he enjoyed the greatest success. He was their leading marksman when the Terriers won the Championship in 1924 and 1925 and then maintained that potency when they allowed him to join Stoke City the following year.

Born in Atherstone, he played in services football during World War One and also turned out for Spurs in the regionalised league of 1918-19 under a variety of pseudonyms, possibly because he was registered with Coventry City at the time.

He signed for us in April, 1919, and hit a hat-trick on his debut at South Shields in September that year. Although not an immediate regular in the side, he netted seven times in 12 league games as we topped Division Two at the end of the season.

Despite strong competition at centre-forward from Jimmy Cantrell and then Alex Lindsay, Charlie bagged 33 goals in 62 league and cup games before his Spurs career came to a mutually agreed conclusion and he headed for Leeds Road in November, 1922.

He quickly became a key member of Herbert Chapman's all conquering side, playing a crucial role as they finished third in his first season and then topping the pile at the end of the following two.

But with the Terriers on their way to the hat-trick, Wilson was injured – and subsequently sold to Stoke City along with Terriers team mate Joey Williams.

Stoke went down but Wilson's goals immediately inspired them to the Third Division (North) title and he was their top scorer in five of his full seasons there.

Triple Measure

Martin Chivers scored five times against the Terriers in his Spurs career. He bagged a brace in our 4-1 home win over Huddersfield in August, 1971, and also netted against them in the second round of the League Cup the following year as we went on to lift the trophy.

MAIN ISSUE

Our programme for Town's 1925 visit continued to be printed on traditional pink paper but had been reduced in size to four pages. It still cost one penny and featured the usual Cocky Cockerel cartoon on the cover.

With the back page featuring fixtures, results and that afternoon's other fixtures, plus the proposed line-ups and league table on page three – showing Spurs in second place and Huddersfield fourth – the only reading was on the opposite side.

The editor bemoaned the fact that we had gleaned just one point from our previous three games and that we had lost our unbeaten home record to Cardiff just days before. The club handbook was on sale at 2d and fans were warned that if their programme seller at games wasn't wearing an official cap then it was a 'pirate.'

The Town players were detailed, with a particular focus on Alex Jackson: "One does not look for many changes in a team of dual championship calibre, but there is one newcomer of distinction, to wit Alexander Jackson." Well, we were warned!

Front Page

The year 1925 also saw the Charleston arrive from the US and become "the craze of Bright Young Things" once the Prince of Wales was spotted having a go! Cyprus became a Crown colony, white lines were painted on roads for the first time and BBC radio broadcasts now reached 10 million people.

Lon Chaney (pictured) was in 'The Phantom of the Opera' at the local cinema and 'If you knew Susie' by Billy Jones and Ernest Hare was in the charts.

LOCAL HERO

Jack Elkes bagged a brace of goals when we drew 5-5 with Huddersfield at the Lane in September, 1925.

The Terriers were on their way to Football League history as former Spurs player Herbert Chapman would lead them to a third successive title while we would finish a disappointing 15th in the final table.

The game saw the introduction of the new offside rule and, despite the wet and windy conditions, both sides went for it.

Scottish international winger Alex Jackson, famously once transferred in exchange for a football, gave Town an early lead but Elkes levelled before Jackson made it 2-1 at the break. Jimmy Dimmock and a Tommy Clay penalty made it 3-2 but then future Spur Billy Cook equalised.

We responded with two goals in a minute from Frank Osborne and Elkes and looked set for victory but then our inspiration Jimmy Seed was knocked out and stretchered off after a tackle by England team mate Sam Wadsworth. Jackson completed his trio as we lost our way before another England international – George Brown – levelled with a late header.

BROOKLYN PRAISES AMAZING EXPERIENCE

Global Coaching's half-term Player Development Programme saw over 200 young players take part in training sessions aimed at 5-15 year-olds across venues in Essex, Hertfordshire and North London last month.

One of the attendees was Brooklyn, aged 14, from Cambridge, Ontario in Canada, who was attending a Global Coaching programme and reflected upon her first experience: "The Spurs camp was an amazing experience. It felt like family."

Participants on our courses experience first-hand the club's commitment to ensuring all players reach their full potential by training with others of similar abilities and ages, guided by our experienced FA and UEFA-qualified coaches.

Brooklyn travelled all the way from Canada and settled into the Global Coaching setting straight away. "The welcome was amazing," she said. "The coaches made everyone chat with everyone else. It was an easy environment to come in to. All the Spurs coaches were approachable and had excellent skills and knowledge."

Brooklyn's parents also commented on the excellent standard of the coaches' professionalism and commitment to ensure every player felt at home and was given the opportunity to develop. "Since we come from Canada, playing with English players was a great experience. The coaches kept the emphasis on developing relationships and character education which was very valuable."

Our programmes create a controlled environment for players to demonstrate flair and individualism, using training methods created within our renowned Academy. Brooklyn went on to say at the end of the course: "I would just like to thank all the coaches for running a quality camp. I would also like to thank them for the extra time they spent explaining the process of becoming a professional women's soccer player in England. It was extremely helpful."

Brandon Austin makes a flying save in the shootout

AUSTIN SAVES THE DAY IN SPOTKICK DRAMA

Goalkeeper Brandon Austin heroically saved from Monaco's Francesco Antonucci to set up a 3-1 penalty shootout victory in our UEFA Youth League round of 16 clash at Stevenage last week.

The 19-year-old stopper, excellent throughout the game, dived low to his right to ensure it was 2-1 after three kicks each, with Oliver Skipp subsequently tucking his penalty away before Moussa Sylla hit the bar to spark wild celebrations among our players.

Monaco's Under-19s, who we'd lost to at home and away during the group stage of our debut campaign in the competition last year, made life very tough for us and took the lead on the stroke of half-time.

A cross from the right was sent back into a crowded area by Ibrahima Diallo and Nabil Alioui was there to fire in from eight yards with bodies all around him.

A good start to the second half was needed and it came thanks to a fantastic strike from Keanan Bennetts. He stayed strong to win a tackle at the left corner of the box, skipped inside and rode another challenge before curling beyond Emmanuel Mifsud into the far corner on his right foot.

Benoit Badiashile Mukinayi somehow fired wide for Monaco and striker Kazaiah Sterling rattled the bar for us, while the centre-back pairing of TJ Eyoma and Brooklyn Lyons-Foster both made crucial contributions in the closing minutes, as did Austin, but with the scores at 1-1 at 90 minutes, the match went straight to penalties.

We didn't make the best start as Samual Shashoua hit the post, before Alioui netted for Monaco and Sterling scored our second spotkick. The tide turned when Adrien Bongiovanni then hit the crossbar, Paris Maghoma scored and Austin produced his fine save to deny Antonucci. That left Skipp to tuck home his penalty with victory secured following Sylla's subsequent miss.

"We're buzzing with the result and the way the lads played," said coach Scott Parker. "It was a tough match and the lads had to show another side to their game, dig in and show a little bit of grit.

"In the first half we didn't really cause them too many problems but the boys took on board what we spoke about at half-time and we mixed up our game a little bit. When you're in the knockout stages of a competition like this, you have to get the result so it was a big learning curve and ultimately, to come through and win on penalties was pleasing.

"We practiced penalties a little bit, we tried to prepare the players as much as we could but I don't know how much you can replicate the nervousness of actually playing in a shootout. Thankfully we did well and Brandon made a good save, so it was pleasing."

Spurs: Austin, Hinds, Reynolds, Skipp, Eyoma (c), Lyons-Foster, Oakley-Boothe (Duncan 87), P Maghoma, Sterling, Roles (S Shashoua 67), Bennetts. Substitutes (not used): De Bie, Brown, Griffiths, Marsh, Tanganga.

REO ROCKS ROYALS

Our Under-18s produced a fantastic display to score four goals and keep a clean sheet against Reading, despite playing for nearly an hour with 10 men.

Jon Dinzeyi's 37th-minute dismissal for a second yellow card seemingly left us with an uphill task in the Under-18 Premier League at Hotspur Way last Saturday and, with the Royals showing their usual physical strength and looking a threat in the air, you wondered how much we'd miss the towering height of the central defender.

Holding midfielder Jamie Bowden dropped back into central defence and we forged ahead in spite of the setback two minutes before the break when Dilan Markanday played the ball down the right for Reo Griffiths to run clean through and there was no stopping the marauding striker as he skipped inside Josh Brooking and fired beyond goalkeeper Jokull Andresson.

We doubled our advantage on 64 minutes when half-time substitute Jamie Reynolds sent Griffiths scurrying down the left channel, he held off his marker, turned inside and took a moment to assess his options before drilling between a couple of retreating defenders to find the net himself.

Visiting skipper Ethan Coleman tried taking things into his own hands in a bid to revive his side, forcing Jonathan De Bie to tip over the bar with a fierce strike from long range and then powering a header towards goal from the resulting corner, only to be denied by an excellent goal-line clearance from Brooklyn Lyons-Foster.

But it was game over on 82 minutes when Reynolds emerged from a melee on the edge of Reading's area with the ball and slid it in down the left for Jneil Bennett to fire in, despite Andresson getting a hand to it.

Griffiths finally found an opportunity to complete his treble in the second minute of added time when Bennett beat his marker with a step-over on the right and slid across the face of goal, allowing his team-mate a tap-in.

"It was a really good result," said coach Scott Parker. "Obviously we were disappointed with the sending-off, we thought it was going to be tricky but the lads were superb today in their attitude and even with 10 men it still felt like we dominated at times, so it was pleasing.

"We played Reading early on in the season and they gave us a really tough game and again today, but I just felt like we took our opportunities really well."

Spurs U18s: De Bie (c), Clarke (Reynolds 46), Hinds, Bowden, Dinzeyi, Lyons-Foster, Markanday (P Maghoma 55), A Shashoua, Griffiths, Patterson (Richards 81), Bennett. Substitute (not used): Statham.

ACADEMY PROFILE:
MAURIZIO POCHETTINO (RIGHT OR LEFT WINGER)

Born: March 30, 2001, in Barcelona.

Last school: Aldenham School near Watford.

When did you first start training for Spurs?
I joined the Under-18s full-time this season. Adapting to that was really easy – it was just about making friends with my new team-mates and, thankfully, everyone has been very good to me.

Who do you like to watch in training in our first team and why?
I like watching Heung-Min Son because I think he's very effective, I really like his one-v-one skills and he gets a lot of goals and assists. Plus, obviously, he plays in my position so I like to study his game.

Which overseas league do you follow closest and which players from it do you most appreciate? I follow La Liga a lot because I used to live in Spain and I've supported Espanyol since I was really young. I try to watch them on TV every time they play. I've always liked Victor Sanchez, he's really good, but at the moment I like Gerard Moreno and Leo Baptistao because they're the two who score the goals!

Any other sports men or women in your family?
Yes, my dad Mauricio played for Espanyol, PSG and Argentina's national team and he is now our manager.

First family holiday? It was to Ibiza when I was seven years old with my mum, dad and my older brother Sebastiano.

If you could meet anyone famous outside of football, who would it be and why? I'm going to say Bruno Mars because I really like his music. My favourite track of his is '24-Karat Magic'.

Which social media platform do you use most? Snapchat.

FIFA or Call of Duty? FIFA.

Golf or shopping? Shopping.

Smart or casual? Casual.

What do you do to chill out on a day off? Normally my day off is Sunday so I watch football but also I try to stay at home, rest and play a bit on my PS4.

If not a footballer what would you like to be? Probably a businessman because I'm studying economics at A-Level, so I'd look to run my own company.

SPURS V HUDDERSFIELD TOWN – 'THE STAR TREK DERBY'

Football fans Marina Sirtis and Sir Patrick Stewart are ready to swap the Bridge for the football pitch as we face the Terriers today. By Billy Shaw

Spurs and Huddersfield might have only just renewed rivalries in the top flight of English football this season following the Terriers' promotion, but the two clubs have been doing battle on an intergalactic level over the last three decades thanks to two celebrity fans!

On the set of one of the world's most popular sci-fi series, 'Star Trek: The Next Generation', passionate Spurs supporter Marina Sirtis and Huddersfield Town devotee Sir Patrick Stewart quickly discovered a mutual appreciation of the beautiful game.

Cast as Counselor Deanna Troi and Captain Jean-Luc Picard respectively in the hit television show and related big screen films, Marina and Sir Patrick have often championed their two teams' causes to each other over the years – and to anyone else who'll listen!

"As the only two Brits on the 'Bridge' of the Enterprise, football came up very early in our relationship," explained north London-born Marina, who is based in the United States these days but has been a Spurs fan since her childhood. "I'd been to a Tottenham-Huddersfield game back in the early 1970s when they had a couple of seasons in the First Division. I remember it succinctly because it was a night-time game and when I mentioned to Sir Patrick that I was impressed with two of the Huddersfield players, Trevor Cherry and Frank Worthington, I think he fell out of the captain's chair! From that moment on, he realised that I knew my stuff.

"Since Huddersfield got promoted last year we've been texting each other because we're not in the same city. I was very nice about Huddersfield at the beginning of the season as they were doing really well, however, they lost a bit of momentum apart from a good run in the FA Cup, so my recent texts perhaps haven't been as kind as they could be and Sir Patrick is ignoring them at the moment!

"I really am rooting for them to stay in the Premier League, though, purely because I love my friend Sir Patrick and I want him to be happy – it's as simple as that!"

With the two clubs set for a Premier League showdown at Wembley today in what, because of Marina and Sir Patrick, can be dubbed 'the Star Trek derby', we spoke exclusively to the two stars of the big screen about the game, how they first came to support their respective clubs and how they'd combine football with Star Trek…

MARINA SIRTIS

COUNSELOR DEANNA TROI, SPURS FAN

How did you come to support Spurs?

"It was a confluence of two seemingly unrelated events. England won the World Cup in 1966 so football was on everybody's minds and I went to Tottenham High School for Girls in September of the same year. We decided to find the nearest boys and they were at Tottenham Hotspur FC, so an interest in boys and football sort of went hand in hand! Jimmy Greaves' testimonial was the first match I ever went to and I used to go every week to White Hart Lane. I'd go and watch the reserves when the first team were away and sometimes if we got up early enough on a Saturday morning we'd head off to Cheshunt where the training ground was to watch the youth team play. Football at that point, from probably the age of 13 or 14, was the main passion in my life. I did all the statistics and everything."

How would you sum up the club's season so far?

"I have to be honest – at the end of last season I was a little concerned, not only for this year but for next year when we move into our fabulous new stadium. I thought not playing at White Hart Lane would somehow be a detriment to the team. How wrong I was! After a bit of a rocky start, we're playing fantastically well at Wembley and so I have no worries that we will play equally fantastically at the new stadium."

What outcome would you be happy with at the end of this season for Spurs?

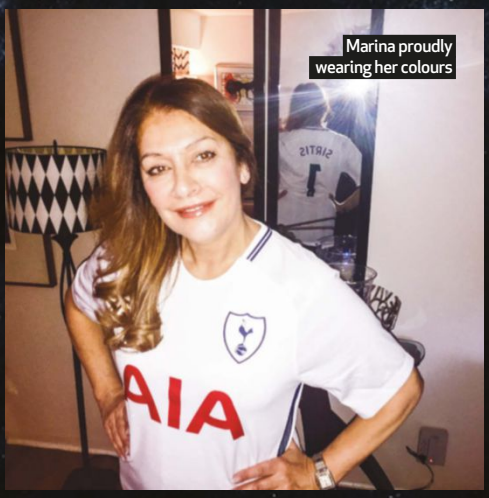
"I think we need to win some silverware, not only because it's been too long but because this group of players deserves it. I think, for Spurs fans like me who want to keep this fabulous young team together, we want to win something."



Marina proudly wearing her colours

How do you assess the match between Huddersfield and Spurs earlier this season?

"I was a little upset that we beat Huddersfield 4-0… well actually that's not true! I felt sorry for my friend Sir Patrick who had such high hopes that somehow his team would beat the mighty Tottenham Hotspur. It wasn't to be."

What are your predictions for Spurs v Huddersfield at Wembley today?

"I hope for my dear friend Sir Patrick's sake that we don't get more than four goals. I think that's about as charitable as I can get!"

Which Spurs players would you recruit for duty on the bridge of the USS Enterprise and why?

"This is a great question! I think the captain would have to be Hugo Lloris. Not only is he the captain of Spurs, but he's also French and as we all know, Jean-Luc Picard was supposed to be French. I think our security chief should be Jan Vertonghen because he keeps us safe at the back, Number One would be Harry Kane because he is the number one – as simple as that – and then the driver of the ship, I think that would have to be Christian Eriksen because he's like the beating heart of our team."

Who from Spurs' squad would you cast as a Star Trek villain and why?

"There is not a single Spurs player, past or present – well, maybe one – that I would ever cast as a villain on the Enterprise because, as we all know, our players are angels sent from heaven to wear the lilywhite shirt of Tottenham Hotspur."

SIR PATRICK STEWART

CAPTAIN JEAN-LUC PICARD, HUDDERSFIELD TOWN FAN

How did you come to support Huddersfield Town?

"I grew up in Mirfield, a few miles down the Calder Valley from Huddersfield. My Uncle Arnold took me to my first match one Saturday afternoon when I was seven. It was packed and he sat me on a crush barrier. I remember nothing of the game except the sea of flat caps topped by cigarette smoke… and the singing."

How would you sum up the club's season so far?

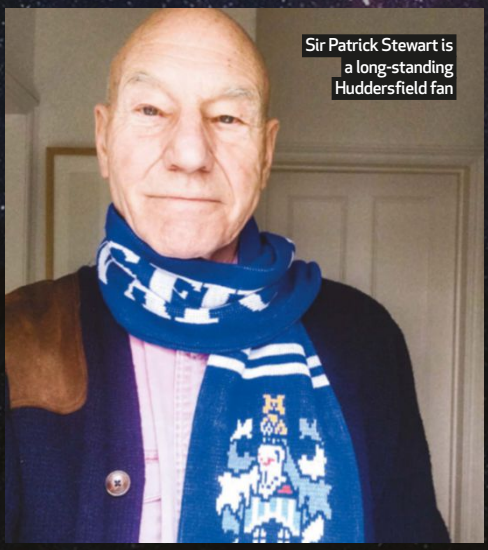
"Well, it's been a season of two halves so far. We started brilliantly, more confidently, more enterprising and more assured than we have been in the past two or three months. We lost our way for a while and it seemed that our attention was on not losing rather than winning. However, with the new additions to the squad in January, things are already looking much better. We have scored eight goals in two matches (at the time of writing), although admittedly one of those was an away cup match against Birmingham. The feeling is that we are back on track and David Wagner's body language would seem to indicate that he feels that also."

Marina (right) and Sir Patrick (centre) in costume on the set of Star Trek



Sir Patrick Stewart is a long-standing Huddersfield fan

What outcome would you be happy with at the end of this season for Huddersfield?

"Obviously to be clear of the relegation zone is our ambition but 12th or 14th in the table would set us up really well for 2018-19. Some of my pals believe 12 more points would see us safe. I would like a couple more."

How do you assess the match between Huddersfield and Spurs earlier this season?

"Tottenham was our first serious defeat in the Premier League. Before that game, we'd won two, drawn three and lost only one. Tottenham outclassed us in every way and showed us how far we still had to go, but in a sense we did progress because two matches later we beat Manchester United 2-1 at the John Smith's Stadium. I think, for many of us, that win was the highlight of many, many seasons of football."

What are your predictions for Spurs v Huddersfield at Wembley today?

"I predict it will be a very tough game but, to be positive about it, Spurs' style will allow us plenty of opportunities for counter-attacking. I don't want to antagonise my much-loved friend and colleague, Marina, but I would like us to keep a clean sheet and maybe even find the back of the net a couple of times!"

Which Huddersfield players would you recruit for duty on the bridge of the USS Enterprise and why?

"I would like to see Christopher Schindler at the helm, Laurent Depoitre, Collin Quaner and Jonas Lossl at security, Alex Pritchard, Phillip Billing and Rajiv van La Parra on the 'away team' and Aaron Mooy at the engineering console. Apart from Aaron being a great midfielder, there has to be one bald guy on the Bridge!"

Who from Huddersfield's squad would you cast as a Star Trek villain and why?

"There are no villains on the Enterprise and none among The Terriers either. Up the Town!"

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

YORKSHIRE SPURS

One of our newest Supporters' Clubs is Yorkshire Spurs, who have been growing rapidly and chairman Paul Pavlou wrote a few words to explain what they have been up to:

"This is our first full season as an Official Supporters' Club and we have already brought together Yorkshire-based Spurs fans who have been going to games for years with supporters who have only recently started attending matches.

"For our members who can't get to the live games, we show all televised matches at a venue in Leeds and, due to popular demand, we have also started showing some televised games in Sheffield and Halifax.

"From a personal note, it is really rewarding bringing large groups of supporters down to Wembley together which, in turn, has seen lots of new friendships form. Bringing a bunch of kids down to Wembley for their first-ever Spurs game was also very rewarding. It's all about the 'Spurs Family' and in the last six months we have also been networking with other Official Supporters' Clubs.

"I have personally met some new friends from Punjabi Spurs, North West Spurs, Cyprus Spurs and Malta Spurs. It really is about unity and the Supporters' Clubs are a very important aspect of Tottenham Hotspur.

"If you live in Yorkshire and support Spurs please get in touch, we are a friendly bunch!"

WHAT IS A LOGE?

"That's what most people say when we discuss the Loge options with clients" explained Hospitality Director, Andy O'Sullivan, "When you break new ground, you sometimes need to educate the market first."

Located on Levels Two, Three and Four of the East Stand and "On Four" on the West Stand, the Loge facilities at our new stadium offer clients the option to have a semi-private, exclusive area while enjoying the buzz and atmosphere of a shared facility.

Andy continued: "We know that fans and businesses will love having their own space, with amazing views of the pitch without having to commit to 12 people in a traditional 'Box'.

"That's what the Loge concept is all about, it's anything but a 'Box'. It's an opportunity to redefine the matchday experience and share life-long memories with your closest family or business contacts, while enjoying fantastic food and drink."

Loge Suites are available for four, six or eight persons with a range of pitch locations including directly over the halfway line. Each facility comes with inclusive dining and includes all Spurs home matches.

There were the times he skimmed across the White Hart Lane mudbath of a pitch as fast as a top-class sprinter, ball at his feet, perfectly under control, defenders trailing in his wake.

Then there were those soaring leaps as he came hurtling in from the wing to climb high above friend and foe alike, meet the ball full on the forehead and send it, rocket like, into the back of the net.

Not to mention those moments of sheer madness when he would fling himself low into a posse of flying boots in the six-yard box in the hope, however forlorn, of getting the faintest of touches to deflect the ball home.

All these, and more, make up the inspiring memories that made Cliff Jones so revered in his 10 years with us. It was a period in which he was a crucial element of the team that took us to the peak at home and in Europe, during which he weighed in with 159 goals in 378 appearances to leave him fourth on the list of our '100 Club' members.

He arrived at the Lane from Swansea Town in February, 1958, but took time to settle. At the end of the season he went to the World Cup in Sweden where, back among players he knew well, he began to re-discover his form but on his return he broke a leg in pre-season training.

It was December before he was fit to return. By then Bill Nicholson had replaced Jimmy Anderson as manager but we were having a tough time of things. A team that had finished third was now struggling to stay out of the bottom three. It would be wrong to say Jones turned our season around but as full fitness returned he began to show the pace, skill and talent that had prompted us to sign him and he never looked back.

With Bill Nick strengthening the team with players of quality such as John White and Dave Mackay, Jones was given the freedom to roam where he could do most damage. Although right-footed, he spent most of his time on the left, picking up the ball deep in midfield, running straight at the defence, beating stars of that unforgettable team. A member of the teams that also won the FA Cup in 1962 and European Cup-Winners' Cup Winners in 1963, Jones gave some of his finest performances on the European stage, his mere name on the team sheet instilling fear in the opposition. It was during the 1963-64 campaign that he reached his century of goals, scoring against Blackpool in a 6-1 win in N17.

Jones' bravery was legendary and it often left him with some nasty injuries but it took something serious to keep him out of the team. That happened in 1965-66 when he missed most of the season but he returned to collect a third FA Cup winner's medal in 1967, the first player to do so without playing as the unused substitute in the defeat of Chelsea.

Although the knocks and age began to slow Jones, he still turned out regularly until October, 1968, when his great service to the club came to an end with his transfer to Fulham. He signed off in the best possible way, with a goal against Manchester United.

STUDENTS ENHANCE LEADERSHIP SKILLS AT HOTSPUR WAY

Our Training Centre recently hosted Enfield Council's Youth Leadership Programme, a course designed to improve the leadership skills of young people through the power of sport.

The programme, delivered in partnership with the Youth Sport Trust, Enfield PE Team and our Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, aims to upskill teenagers in practical coaching methods, philosophy and ethics, giving them the confidence to become role models and leaders in their schools.

Students from Edmonton County School and Ark John Keats School attended the session and had the opportunity to use the Training Centre's world-class facilities, taking part in a football coaching session delivered by the club's Schools Development Coach, Frank Kain. The students also learned how to officiate Tri-Golf, a mini golf activity aimed at primary school children, delivered by Dan Fickling, Head Professional at Crews Hill Golf Club.

The event forms part of the Section 106 Partnership, launched in June, 2010, by Enfield Council, Lee Valley Regional Park Authority and Tottenham Hotspur. The partnership has highlighted the club's £2.3m commitment to community sport and physical activity over 10 years to the borough in which the Training Centre resides.

Nikki Kelly, Acting Chief Executive of the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, said: "It is important for us to open our doors to local school children to help them learn and develop their leadership skills while giving them a memorable time at our Training Centre."

Paula Felgate, Enfield PE Team Manager, said: "Having the opportunity to use Tottenham Hotspur's world-class training facilities to deliver the Youth Leadership Programme in Enfield is hugely beneficial to the students. Enfield Council is delighted to be working with Tottenham Hotspur to deliver sport and community programmes like these which benefit the lives of people within the local community."

Mathew Hall, a student at Edmonton County School, said: "Coming to the Training Centre to learn about the importance of coaching has been a fantastic experience. Before now I didn't have the confidence to speak in front of others. But this course has really helped me to improve my leadership skills and take them back to my school."

CLUB CELEBRATES LGBT HISTORY MONTH

To mark LGBT History Month and Football v Homophobia Month of Action, Proud Lilywhites, our official LGBT+ Supporters' Association, have been showcasing the work they do in the local community, throughout the UK and around the world.

LGBT History Month aims to increase the visibility of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people, raise awareness of matters affecting the LGBT community and promote welfare.

Throughout February, Chris Paouros and Simon Gray, co-chairs of Proud Lilywhites, have represented the group at a host of events including Wembley's 'Rainbow the Arch' event, the FA's LGBT reception hosted by Greg Clarke, Spurs Ladies' recent home match with Watford, our Champions League clash with Juventus in Turin and at Haringey Council's LGBT History Month event.

Since their launch in 2014, Proud Lilywhites have gone from strength to strength increasing their membership and reach by actively working with other fan groups and communities in the UK and globally. Through their work they have built long-lasting relationships with organisations such as the FA, Kick It Out, Football V Homophobia and the Football Supporters Federation.

AUTHOR GIVES BOOK READING

As part of LGBT History Month Darryl Telles, a member of our LGBT+ Supporters group, Proud Lilywhites, read from his recently published book at Housmans Bookstore, attended by the Mayor of Camden, a longstanding Spurs supporter. Paul shakes hands with England's Peter Shilton as he captains Wales here in 1983

WEMBLEY MEMORIES

Each matchday, Andy Greeves speaks to a former Spurs player about their memories of Wembley Stadium during their career. This afternoon, former Wales international Paul Price looks back on his appearances at the 'Home of Football' for club and country.

Shortly before signing for us in the summer of 1981, then-Luton Town defender Paul Price got to play at Wembley Stadium for the first time, starting for Wales against England on May 20 that year.

"My debut for Wales was a 4-1 win against England at Wrexham's Racecourse Ground the previous year," says Price, who won 25 caps for his country between 1980 and 1984. "To walk out against England again, this time at Wembley, some 12 months on was an incredible experience for me and my family. A 0-0 draw with England was a great result for a defender too!"

Following his £250,000 move in June, 1981, Price appeared in four of our pre-season friendlies before taking his place on our bench here at Wembley for the FA Charity Shield against Aston Villa. Though he didn't get to feature in the game – which finished in a 2-2 draw – the occasion served as good learning brief ahead of the start of the 1981-82 season.

"That game against Villa allowed me to have a good look at the way we played," comments Paul, who made his league debut for us away to Middlesbrough the following week. "It was great being back at Wembley that day, even though I didn't play. In my days, a players' only chance of playing at Wembley Stadium was in an international or a cup final and I feel very privileged to have gone on and been involved in both occasions. Wembley's history is incredible, as is its atmosphere when there are 100,000 people inside!"

> WALKING UP THE WEMBLEY STEPS TO RECEIVE A WINNERS' MEDAL IN FRONT OF A HUGE GLOBAL TELEVISION AUDIENCE AND OUR FAMILIES WAS AN INCREDIBLE FEELING

Up against Liverpool's Kenny Dalglish in the 1982 League Cup Final as Paul Miller looks on

In his debut season with us, Price appeared in 33 of our 65 fixtures during an incredibly busy campaign that saw us reach the semi-final of the European Cup Winners' Cup and the final of both the League Cup and FA Cup. On March 13, 1982, he partnered Paul Miller in central defence as we faced Liverpool in the League Cup Final here.

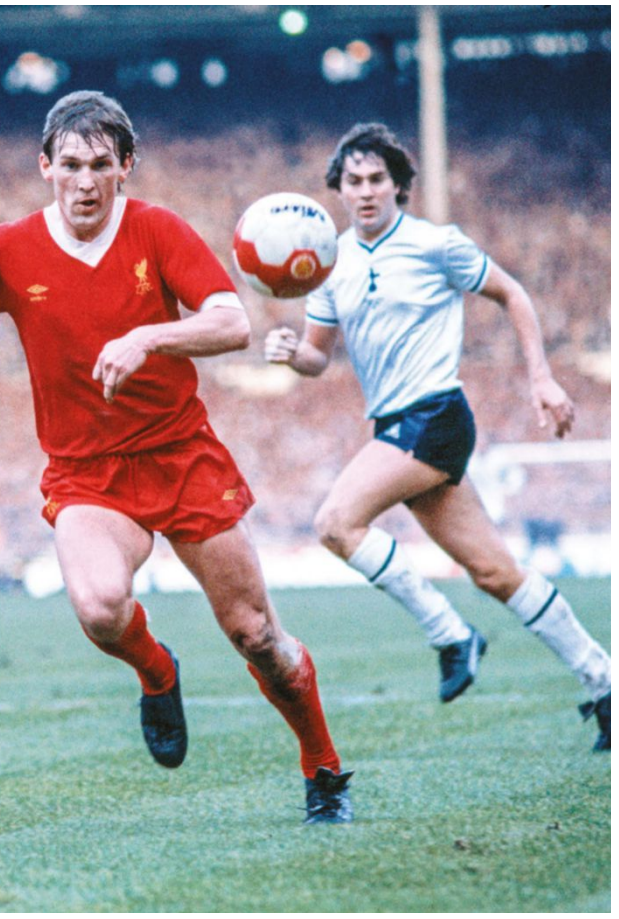
"The final against Liverpool was another fantastic experience," says Paul, who made a total of 58 appearances for us between 1981 and 1983. "I thought the team played well that day and, at 1-0 up, we had opportunities to kill the game off. Once Ronnie Whelan equalised with only minutes remaining I think the momentum changed and it was a massive disappointment to lose 3-1 in extra-time."

After defeat to the Reds, Price and Spurs were back at Wembley for the FA Cup Final of May 22, 1982, as we took on Queens Park Rangers of the old Second Division.

"It was chance for us to redeem the League Cup Final loss," reflects Paul, who started for us in both the final and the subsequent replay five days later. "Having taken the lead in extra-time in the final through Glenn Hoddle, it was a bit of déjà vu when we conceded a late equaliser to force a replay.

"I was struggling with a groin injury and two games in five days was difficult. Only a pain killing injection enabled me to play in the replay. It was such a relief to win the replay and lift the most famous domestic cup in the world. Walking up the steps to receive a winners' medal in front of a huge global television audience and our families was an incredible feeling. Both teams were exhausted too from four hours plus of playing time in such a short space of time."

Paul celebrates FA Cup success over QPR in 1982



Price won 14 of his 25 caps for Wales during his time as a Spurs player and between 1983 and 1984, he skippered the Dragons – under the management of our ex-defender Mike England. On February 23, 1983, he led his Welsh teammates out at Wembley for a British Home Championships fixture with England. The Three Lions triumphed 2-1 on the day with goals from Terry Butcher and Phil Neal cancelling out an earlier opener from Ian Rush.

"My father was from Merthyr Tydfil but I was born in Hertfordshire," said Paul, on his international career. "To be the first English-born captain of Wales and to lead the team out at Wembley was a major high point in my career and very emotional too. Sadly, my father was not there to see it.

"Mike England was a fantastic manager of Wales and I have to say he was the nicest guy to play for. I believe the success he had helped inspire the resurgence of the Welsh team you see today."

Price's last appearance for us came in a League Cup match against Arsenal on November 9, 1983, prior to a move to Minnesota Strikers of the former North American Soccer League. The defender had previously turned out for fellow Minneapolis club Minnesota Kicks on loan from Luton in 1977-78 but his return to the States in 1984 proved to be a brief one.

"The league folded after six months and I found myself back in the UK at Christmas without a club," he explained.

It was Swansea City that gave Paul the opportunity to resurrect his career in British football, signing him in January, 1985. He became a regular fixture in the Swans' starting line-up, playing some 61 league matches in the old Division Three prior to a transfer to Peterborough United in August, 1986.

After retiring from playing in 1988, Paul worked as a property developer in the UK before moving to Australia over 10 years ago. Based in Perth, he has held the head coach positions at the Western Knights and Armadale SC since while he led Sorrento FC to the Football West Premier League and State Cup 'double' in 2012. He continues to follow the fortunes of all his former clubs and regularly watches our matches on television.

"I came back to the UK in 2014 and met up with some of my former Spurs teammates including Ricky Villa, John Lacy, Micky Hazard, Paul Miller, Mark Falco, Graham Roberts and Glenn Hoddle," adds Paul. "It was great to catch up, play some golf and to help the Spurs Legends win a veterans' football tournament at Leyton Orient. I got to see some matches at White Hart Lane while I was there and I most impressed with a young lad playing up front by the name of Harry Kane and said he was destined for good things!

"His rise has been incredible and let's hope he can help fire Spurs to some silverware in the coming years."
